

September 21st announcements

What's up Jackson!

Happy Wednesday everyone! This is Nate Yoon with your morning announcements! Please stand for the pledge!

Starting off with our morning announcements, this Friday we've all been waiting for... the moment... the game... the hype... its about to get LIT! We will need everyone to come out decked out in black as we take on our rivals... the Glacier Peak Grizzlies. There will be a tail gate before the game, so arrive early for lots of fun and great parking spots. The game will be this Friday, September 23rd @ Everett Memorial @5 pm.

Today MIT Launch Club will be holding their first meeting. If your interested in learning how to start your own business or even want a chance to work with Massachusetts Institute of Technology, make sure to come to Mrs.Kalina's room today after school.

Get ready for homecoming season! The class of 2019 officers are more than happy to make your proposals the best ones yet! Fill out a form from the scoop for us to make your poster! $3 for a small poster and $5 for a large poster. For more details, check out the form on the student scoop!

Hey Seniors! Please mark your calendars for the following dates:
October 24 is the senior class photo for the yearbook. It will take place on the field during 3rd period.
Senior headshots are due to yearbook on Wednesday, October 19.
Senior Quotes are due Friday, October 28, and

Senior Ads are due December 16, and are on a first come, first serve basis as space allows.

Look for specific information on the JHS website, or outside the yearbook room, C121.

Ceramics students from last year--please stop by C115 to pick up left over work. It will find a new home by the end of the week.

You are invited to join the Battle of the Books Club!

Our first meeting is today. Come to the library during your lunch and learn about the new battle books

Those interested in Revive Club. They meet in Portable 15 on Thursdays at 2:15-3:15.

Do you love to write? Join Creative Writing Club members every Thursday after school in Portable 5. Bring your own original work and be prepared to critique some wicked good writing!

Are you someone who is interested in French language and culture? Do you need help with French or want to advance in your class? Come to French club! You can meet people with similar interests who can help you brush up on your skills or teach you if you don't know any French! We meet Wednesdays after school in portable 7--see you at our first meeting on September 28th! There will be food, friends, and fun!

Are you interested in pursuing a career in health sciences?
Then come to HOSA's first meeting on Friday, September 29th.
Learn more about the health care needs of our community, and develop leadership and technical skills.

Open Campus passes will be distributed to students Wednesday-Friday. So come by Mrs. Montens office in room B-215.

Those interested in showing out for basketball, there will be an Open gym at JHS, 2:30-3:30 on Tuesday 9/27.

The library will be open for Silent Reading Lunch on Friday.

Sign up in the library to get a ticket. Bring the ticket and your lunch to the library on Friday.

Want to gain service hours and meet new people? Wanna know why we're the biggest and most spirited club at Jackson? What's up with the bumblebees? Find out all about the buzz in Key Club at our kick-off meeting this Thursday 2:15 in the Commons! Snacks will be provided and be prepared to have fun!

The Jackson Girls swim swam their way to victory over both Meadowdale and Lynnwood at yesterday's meet. The following girls qualified for State:

Maddie Pressler in 200 Free

Nicole Limberg in 200 IM

Chloe Limargo in 100 Breast

Congrats girls on qualifying for state!

That's it for your morning announcements!

Have a great weekend!

September 20th announcements

What's up Jackson!

*Have you ever heard that drake song where it goes like....
Please stand up and sing along if you mess with this song*

SKRT SKRT SKRT... Happy Tuesday everyone! This is Nate Yoon with your morning announcements! Please stand for the pledge!

*Starting off with our morning announcements, this Friday we've all been waiting for... the moment... the game... the hype... its about to get LIT! We will need everyone to come out decked out in black as we take on our rivals... the Glacier Peak Grizzlies. There will be a tail gate before the game, so arrive early for lots of fun and great parking spots. The game will be this Friday, September 23rd @
Everett Memorial @5 pm.*

Hey all Jackson students! In case you couldn't make it to the first robotics meeting, don't worry! We're having an identical meeting on Wednesday the 21st at 6:00 in the library. Remember, we have free pizza, so you don't want to miss out! Hope to see you there!

"Do you like solving world issues and learning about current events?

Join Model UN for our kickoff meeting today after school in Ms. Shee's room, C130. Everyone is welcome, and there will even be food."

Are you interested in Cooking? Do you want to learn how to Cook? Or do you enjoy eating yummy food? If you do, come to Cooking Club's first meeting today @ 2:10 in B206.

"September 21st, make sure to mark your calendar because MIT Launch Club will be holding their first meeting that day. If your interested in learning how to start your own business or even want a chance to work with Massachusetts Institute of Technology, make sure to come to Mrs.Kalina's room on september 21st after school."

Get ready for homecoming season! The class of 2019 officers are more than happy to make your proposals the best ones yet! Fill out a form from the scoop for us to make your poster! $3 for a small poster and $5 for a large poster. For more details, check out the form on the student scoop!

Hey Seniors! Please mark your calendars for the following dates:

October 24 is the senior class photo for the yearbook. It will take place on the field during 3rd period.

Senior headshots are due to yearbook on Wednesday, October 19.

Senior Quotes are due Friday, October 28, and Senior Ads are due December 16, and are on a first come, first serve basis as space allows.

Look for specific information on the JHS website, or outside the yearbook room, C121.

Ceramics students from last year--please stop by C115 to pick up left over work. It will find a new home by the end of the week.

You are invited to join the Battle of the Books Club!

Our first meeting is this Wednesday, Sept 21

Come to the library during your lunch and learn about the new battle books

Attention those interested in DECA. DECA forms are due today to Mr. Brushes room C205

"Competition, Collaboration, and Cutting-edge technology. If any one of these words excites you, make sure to head to the annex after school on Tuesday, September 20th for Jackson's Technology Student Association Kickoff Meeting. Whether you're interested in designing wearable technology, debating 21st century issues, or filming high-quality video, we've got a place for you at TSA!"

Those interested in Revive Club. They meet in Portable 15 on Thursdays at 2:15-3:15

Do you love to write? Join Creative Writing Club members every Thursday after school in Portable 5. Bring your own original work and be prepared to critique some wicked good writing!

Are you someone who is interested in French language and culture? Do you need help with French or want to advance in your class? Come to French club! You can meet people with similar interests who can help you brush up on your skills or teach you if you don't know any French! We meet Wednesdays after school in portable 7--see you at our first meeting on the 28th! There will be food, friends, and fun!

Are you interested in pursuing a career in health sciences?

Then come to HOSA's first meeting on September 29th.

Learn more about the health care needs of our community, and develop leadership and technical skills.

“Open Campus passes will be distributed to students Wednesday-Friday in Mrs. Monten’s Office B215.”

That’s it for your morning announcements! Have a great weekend!

September 19th announcements

Welcome back Timberwolves!! Hope you all enjoyed your weekend!!

Congrats to our football team with a victory against Mount Vernon, starting off their season with a 3-0 record. This Friday we will need everyone to come out to the GP rivalry game this Friday, September 23rd.

Northwest University will be visiting in the Career Center on today at 11:30AM and Grand Canyon University will be visiting on Tuesday, September 20 at 9:00AM. Remember to pick up a pre-arranged absence form from the Career Center prior to each visit.

"Hello Jackson, we have the American Sign Language Club starting up on today. We meet at portable 7 at 2:15. Please come if you know or even don't know sign language. There will be learning and lots of fun!"

Hey all Jackson students! In case you couldn't make it to the first robotics meeting, don't worry! We're having an identical meeting on Wednesday the 21st at 6:00 in the library. Remember, we have free pizza, so you don't want to miss out! Hope to see you there!

"Do you like solving world issues and learning about current events?"

Join Model UN for our kickoff meeting this Tuesday, September 20th after school in Ms. Shee's room, C130. Everyone is welcome, and there will even be food."

Are you interested in Cooking? Do you want to learn how to Cook? Or do you enjoy eating yummy food? If you do, come to Cooking Club's first meeting on Tuesday September 20th @ 2:10 in B206.

"September 21st, make sure to mark your calendar because MIT Launch Club will be holding their first meeting that day. If your interested in learning how to start your own business or even want a chance to work with Massachusetts Institute of Technology, make sure to come to Mrs.Kalina's room on september 21st after school."

Love Latin food and saucy music? Interested in culture, leadership, and making new friends? Then come to Portable 8 at 2:10pm on today for the first Latino Leadership Club meeting! Meetings will be every Monday. The Latino Leadership Club advised by Señor Lockman welcomes you to start a great year embracing friends and culture. You do not need to know Spanish or be Hispanic to join this fun club. You will have the opportunity to hear inspirational speakers, participate in great events, improve your leadership abilities, and dine on incredible food. We look forward to seeing you!

Get ready for homecoming season! The class of 2019 officers are more than happy to make your proposals the best ones yet!

Fill out a form from the scoop for us to make your poster! $3 for a small poster and $5 for a large poster. For more details, check out the form on the student scoop!

Hey Seniors! Please mark your calendars for the following dates:

October 24 is the senior class photo for the yearbook. It will take place on the field during 3rd period.

Senior headshots are due to yearbook on Wednesday, October 19.

Senior Quotes are due Friday, October 28, and

Senior Ads are due December 16, and are on a first come, first serve basis as space allows.

Look for specific information on the JHS website, or outside the yearbook room, C121.

Ceramics students from last year--please stop by C115 to pick up left over work. It will find a new home by the end of the week.

You are invited to join the Battle of the Books Club!

Our first meeting is this Wednesday, Sept 21

Come to the library during your lunch and learn about the new battle books

That's it for your morning announcements! Have a great weekend!

September 16th announcements

Happy Friday Timberwolves!!

Come out and support our fellow Timberwolves at Mount Vernon HS at 7pm today.

“Attention all students – now’s the time to get organized and start the semester off right!

Keep track of your homework and projects so you’re not missing important deadlines!

Student Planners will be on sale for $10 each during both lunches from now until Sept 16th.

Look for the table on stage in the Commons – cash or checks (payable to JHS PTSA) allowed.

In addition to the school year calendar, your custom Jackson Student Planner offers a special deal for students taking SAT & ACT Prep classes thru SATPrep so stop by the table in the lunchroom today and pick up your Jackson Student Planner!”

Northwest University will be visiting in the Career Center on Monday, September 19 at 11:30AM and Grand Canyon University will be visiting on Tuesday, September 20 at 9:00AM. Remember to pick up a pre-arranged absence form from the Career Center prior to each visit.

Attention seniors and juniors! Those interested in an off campus pass, forms are now out on the student scoop. They are due today.

It’s not too late to turn out for cross country.

Anyone wanting to get in shape and join a winning successful team should sign up by today!

Any questions see Coach Till in D103

"Hello Jackson, we have the American Sign Language Club starting up on Monday September 19th. We meet at portable 7 at 2:15. Please come if you know or even don't know sign language. There will be learning and lots of fun!"

Native plants garden? Solar panels? Recycling? What can you do to make a difference? Come join Project Green on Wednesday, September 14 after school in Mrs. Walters' room, C-215. We are working to keep JHS a Washington Green School.

Are you interested in cultural diversity? Celebrating individual and ethnic groups from all over the world? Come join multi-cultural club! Everyone is welcomed and encouraged to join this vast unique club; leadership, individuality, and cultural awareness is promoted. All those interested in joining come to room C201 after school Wednesday September 14 at 2:05 .

"Hello all Jackson students! Are you interested in free pizza, science, technology, and engineering? If so, come to the first meeting of Jackson's robotics team in the library on Monday, September 19th at 6:00. No experience is necessary; all are welcome! We hope to see you there!"

"Do you like solving world issues and learning about current events?

Join Model UN for our kickoff meeting next Tuesday, September 20th after school in Ms. Shee's room, C130. Everyone is welcome, and there will even be food."

Are you interested in Cooking? Do you want to learn how to Cook? Or do you enjoy eating yummy food? If you do, come to Cooking Club's first meeting on Tuesday September 20th @ 2:10 in B206.

"September 21st, make sure to mark your calendar because MIT Launch Club will be holding their first meeting that day. If your interested in learning how to start your own business or even want a chance to work with Massachusetts Institute of Technology, make sure to come to Mrs.Kalina's room on september 21st after school."

Love Latin food and saucy music? Interested in culture, leadership, and making new friends? Then come to Portable 8 at 2:10pm on Monday September 19th for the first Latino Leadership Club meeting! Meetings will be every Monday. The Latino Leadership Club advised by Señor Lockman welcomes you to start a great year embracing friends and culture. You do not need to know Spanish or be Hispanic to join this fun club. You will have the opportunity to hear inspirational speakers, participate in great events, improve your leadership abilities, and dine on incredible food. We look forward to seeing you!

Hey freshies! Freshmen elections are September 23rd, and the forms are now out on the student scoop. They are due today on the student scoop. Those qualified for running will be contacted about a candidates meeting on Monday, September 19th at 6:30 am. If you have any question see Mr. Gadek in room D205.

Get ready for homecoming season! The class of 2019 officers are more than happy to make your proposals the best ones yet! Fill out a form from the scoop for us to make your poster! $3 for a small poster and $5 for a large poster. For more details, check out the form on the student scoop!

That's it for your morning announcements! Have a great weekend!

Good morning Timberwolves!!

Come out and support our fellow Timberwolves at Mount Vernon HS at 7pm on Friday, September 16th.

"Attention all students – now's the time to get organized and start the semester off right!

Keep track of your homework and projects so you're not missing important deadlines! Student Planners will be on sale for $10 each during both lunches from now until Sept 16th.

Look for the table on stage in the Commons – cash or checks (payable to JHS PTSA) allowed.

In addition to the school year calendar, your custom Jackson Student Planner offers a special deal for students taking SAT & ACT Prep classes thru SATPrep so stop by the table in the lunchroom today and pick up your Jackson Student Planner!"

Attention seniors and juniors! Those interested in an off campus pass, forms are now out on the student scoop. They will be due this Friday, September 16th.

It's not too late to turn out for cross country.

Anyone wanting to get in shape and join a winning successful team should sign up by this Friday!

Any questions see Coach Till in D103

"Hello Jackson, we have the American Sign Language Club starting up on Monday September 19th. We meet at portable 7 at 2:15. Please come if you know or even don't know sign language. There will be learning and lots of fun!"

Native plants garden? Solar panels? Recycling? What can you do to make a difference? Come join Project Green on Wednesday, September 14 after school in Mrs. Walters' room, C-215. We are working to keep JHS a Washington Green School.

Are you interested in cultural diversity? Celebrating individual and ethnic groups from all over the world? Come join multi-cultural club! Everyone is welcomed and encouraged to join this vast unique club; leadership, individuality, and cultural awareness is promoted. All those interested in joining come to room C201 after school Wednesday September 14 at 2:05 .

"Hello all Jackson students! Are you interested in free pizza, science, technology, and engineering? If so, come to the first meeting of Jackson's robotics team in the library on Monday, September 19th at 6:00. No experience is necessary; all are welcome! We hope to see you there!"

"Do you like solving world issues and learning about current events?

Join Model UN for our kickoff meeting next Tuesday, September 20th after school in Ms. Shee's room, C130. Everyone is welcome, and there will even be food."

Are you interested in Cooking? Do you want to learn how to Cook? Or do you enjoy eating yummy food? If you do, come to Cooking Club's first meeting on Tuesday September 20th @ 2:10 in B206.

"September 21st, make sure to mark your calendar because MIT Launch Club will be holding their first meeting that day. If your interested in learning how to start your own business or even want a chance to work with Massachusetts Institute of Technology, make sure to come to Mrs.Kalina's room on september 21st after school."

Love Latin food and saucy music? Interested in culture, leadership, and making new friends? Then come to Portable 8 at 2:10pm on Monday September 19th for the first Latino Leadership Club meeting! Meetings will be every Monday. The Latino Leadership Club advised by Señor Lockman welcomes you to start a great year embracing friends and culture. You do not need to know Spanish or be Hispanic to join this fun club. You will have the opportunity to hear inspirational speakers, participate in great events, improve your leadership abilities, and dine on incredible food. We look forward to seeing you!

Hey freshies! Freshmen elections are September 23rd, and the forms are now out on the student scoop. If you have any question see Mr. Gadek in room D205.

Get ready for homecoming season! The class of 2019 officers are more than happy to make your proposals the best ones yet! Fill out a form from the scoop for us to make your poster! $3 for a small poster and $5 for a large poster. For more details, check out the form on the student scoop!

That's it for your morning announcements! Have a great day!