

November 19th Announcements

-challenge day is on the rise, this is a day for you to break boundaries and prevent judgment on your fellow students. Everyone has a story. Its during a full school day dedicated to creating a culture at Jackson. Come sign up for challenge day. forms are at the student scoop and there are only so many spots left so get your forms in as soon as possible.

- today is the second day of RAK week, Random acts of kindness week! Today, is. This week we encourage you all to put others first and think about how your words effect others.

-Hey Key Clubbers! There will be a meeting THIS Thursday at 2:10pm in the Annex. Come pick up your club t-shirts! This will be an important meeting.

-There is a Hi-Q meeting Thursday after school in P-10!

-There will be an Interact Club meeting today after school at 2:10PM in the Career Center.

Please come support and honor our student athletes.

We are hosting a NLI signing party/ ceremony at 3:30pm today in the JHS library. come support your fellow seniors in their signing today, these students are Aaron Roe, and Brooke Kingma

- (wind noise) ... Henry is coming, henry is coming, start buying your toys because henry the giving snowman is coming!