KUDOS

Kudos are welcome from everyone! Celebrate your colleagues—heck, give yourself a nod! Please send your kudos to Amanda Irtz Summers.

Kudos to...

- ...Kathi Guffey. She deserves kudos for her class management! While teaching Freshman Focus in several of her classes, Kathi’s students were attentive and polite, “right on” when asked to do a task, and engaged during the entire hour. As a new teacher to your classes, thank you for setting such an accepting and cooperative tone with your students.
- ...Susan Brown. One of her former students told me she uses what Mrs. Brown taught her at Jackson to ace her freshman classes at University of Washington.
- ...Dave Peters for being our leader, our heart of Jackson, and our safety net during a time of need.
- ...Officer Rory Mundwiler. Your dedication to keeping our school and community safe is appreciated in so many ways! Thank you for everything you do each day, and particularly this week, to provide extra measures of safety for our school community. Your work does not go unnoticed.

NEW! DECORATED DOORS: If you haven't had a chance to get out and take a look, it is worth a walk around the building to see the great door decorations. You can also see how the hallways have been decorated. If your 3rd period class hasn't decorated yet, there's still time! Judging will take place on Tuesday, Dec. 16. If you are submitting your door into the contest for judging, please let ASB know by Monday, Dec. 15! The scoring guide is 5 points for Originality, 10 points for Creativity, and 5 points for Use of Space. Go all out! The winner will get a pizza party. Alan

NEW! FOOD DRIVE PROGRESS: Below are the totals after Thursday's pickup. Leadership students will come by again Friday. Be sure to mark your bags and boxes with your last name and number of donations. NEW! FOOD DRIVE—DONATION SUGGESTIONS: Last week I stopped by the Mill Creek Food Bank to see exactly how our food drive benefits the surrounding community. I was humbled by the experience and felt great satisfaction in witnessing first-hand how our Jackson Food Drive helps those who rely on this resource to feed their families. The needs of those I was able to help ranged from one person to a family of five. It was also nice seeing a fellow colleague there as he does this on a regular basis. Attached is the list the Mill Creek food drive organizers sent me as their greatest needs. I am excited about having the kids do the competition with another school this year. I am also a little concerned we may fall short of our goal of 15,000 canned products within the shorter time frame. That is why you may get a few reminders. We will have a barometer near the collection area so we can see how well we are doing. Thank you for your support. Alan

NEW! NOTES TO TROOPS: A sincere thank you to everyone who participated in writing notes to troops for the holiday season. I will be delivering to the Red Cross a box with 265 notes and letters of gratitude and thoughts for those who are serving our country here and around the world. Most especially, I'd like to thank the Honor Society (Ms. McIntosh), Crosby's classes, Literacy for Love (Mr. Lockman and Ms. Stolzenburg), Ping's Girl Scout troop, and Ms. Gifford's classes. There were also many people who individually provided cards and notes, for which I am grateful. Wolfpack pride abounds!! Peace, Jean Sarcletti

NEW! HYGIENE PRODUCTS DRIVE: Just a heads up! Come February and Valentine's Day, the GayStraight Alliance is looking to hook up with other JHS clubs to do a personal hygiene products drive, with the items gathered going to the Cocoon House. SO, if you travel this holiday season, please keep this in mind. Shove those extra hotel items (even the shower cap) in your suitcase and bring 'em on home to us! So far, Torri McEntire is our star supplier! Kathleen Guffey, GayStraight Alliance Advisor

BE ON THE LOOKOUT: They're everywhere—you see them every day. You want to acknowledge their awesomeness yet don't know how. Pathway to Pride, Excellence and Character is a most excellent program through which you can recognize the incredible citizenship and high standards of our students.
