Summer Reading Activities

Complete and turn in one of the following activities for each book you read over the summer.

Activities:

- Take an AR test and keep a log that includes the book's title and AR points earned.
Between July 1 and August 31, 2016, go to <https://rdiweb.everett.k12.wa.us/> to take an Accelerated Reader (AR) test. Log in with your six digit student ID number and the same password you used at school. AR tests can be taken anywhere you have internet access.
- Choose and copy three quotes from the book that best represent the main character and include the page number for each quote. Based on the quotes, write a short paragraph about how the character changes throughout the book and interacts with other characters.
- Draw an object that symbolizes the theme(s) or central idea(s) of the book. Explain why you chose the object you did.
- Write a poem that illustrates how a major conflict in the book influenced a character's self-identity or ideas about the world.
- Create a comic strip that summarizes your book.
- In a short paragraph, explain how this novel is a product of the author's experiences, biases, and background. How is the author's work contributing to discussions or conversations about events in the time period of the book's setting?

Summer Reading Incentives

Students will receive rewards for reading two books, three books, and more than three books. An activity must be completed for each book read.

Two books—Name entered into a drawing for a variety of $25 gift cards and recognition at a school assembly.

Three books—Name entered into a drawing for a variety of $25 gift cards, recognition at a school assembly, name published in The Daily Herald, and name entered into a drawing for a free "Y" student membership.

More than three books—All of the above plus your name entered into a drawing for a Kindle tablet.

If you do not want your child's name printed in The Daily Herald, please sign here.
