Chromebook Reminders

- Please remember it is your responsibility to charge your Chromebooks at night and bring them to school the next day. There should be very few times that you need to charge at school or get a loaner. Please get into a routine with charging your device, putting it in your backpack and bringing it to school.
- Make sure you are powering off your device daily. This keeps things running better and it is needed for updates.
- There will be a big update next week. We want to make sure your devices are at school, being used and being powered down to make sure they get the update when it is pushed.
- We are seeing an increase in broken Chromebooks lately due to students being careless or destructive. Please be responsible and careful with the Chromebooks. They are expensive and need to last several years.

Thank you!
