

Our Promise to Each Other

When we care about each other and our classroom, we share what we have, listen carefully, help each other, work hard and have fun.

We understand that everyone makes mistakes. We can forgive each other and use good manners.

When someone asks us to stop, we stop. This is who we are, even when no-one is looking.

Friends & Ms. Toneri