

Good morning Gateway Guardians,

Here is our news for Wednesday, April 24th:

Attention all students! Just a reminder that the Responsibility Rap Contest is going on! Please feel free to pick up the rap contest rules at the Gateway Kiosk front office. You've got some time to create a rap (by yourself or with friends) highlighting what the R in GUARD means to you! Responsibility raps are due to Mrs. Smith by Monday, April 29! Thank you!

The annual Gateway Talent Show is coming and we are looking for musicians, dancers, singers, acrobats, jugglers, comedians, ANYONE with an entertaining talent to share! This is your chance to shine! This year's Talent Show will be during the end-of-year assembly on the second-to-last day of school (June 20th) which means that you still have time to create your act, practice, and be ready for auditions on May 7th and 8th. Sign-up sheets will be posted during the last week of April. If you have any questions, see Mrs. Arango.

Attention 8th Graders!

It's almost the end of the year and to help celebrate your time here at Gateway, why not get a Class of 2023 t-shirt! From now until April 26th, the PTSA is taking orders for class shirts and the forms are available at the Gateway office and on the PTSA website. This year's class shirt was designed by 8th grader Kayla Shin and will be printed on dark heather grey shirts. The shirts are available in adult sizes for both men's and ladies styles. Don't delay, order your shirt today!

Remember Gateway, guard your character!
