

Name: _____

Period: _____

Date: _____

Band Saw

Auburn High School

Safety Test

1. Your hand should never be in line with the blade while cutting. T F
2. Use a miter gauge when _____ on the band saw.
(Crosscutting) (Ripping) (Resawing)
3. Adjustments should be made with the power off. T F
4. Keep your fingers a minimum of _____ inches from the blade.
5. The guide post should be adjusted to 1" above the wood before turning the power on. T F
6. The saw blade on the large band saw may be stopped by using the foot break. T F
7. As soon as you have shut off the power switch, you may clear the wood scraps off the table, lower the guide post and leave the machine. T F
8. Stock to be cut must lie flat on the table. T F
9. The table may be tilted to a maximum of _____ degrees.
10. When cutting a sharp curve, you should make _____ cuts first to help prevent the blade from binding and breaking.
11. When Resawing on the saw it is best to use a fence and a feather board. T F
12. Never stand to the _____ side of the band saw. If the blade was to break you would be in danger of being hurt.

