Are you feeling overwhelmed by homework?

MAKE USE OF THE ASSISTANCE & RESOURCES AVAILABLE TO YOU!!!

ARE YOUR GRADES SLIPPING?

DO YOU NEED A QUIET PLACE TO STUDY?

Do you feel like you would benefit from the assistance of a tutor?

Do you need a little help understanding your schoolwork?

Check out the following options available to you...

JHS Open Library:

All JHS Students are invited to study in the library during this time.

Mon—Thurs

2:10—3:10pm

After-School Study Club:

Sponsored by the JHS Multicultural Club
Get help with homework, college applications, CE and more!

Every Wednesday

Room C201
2:10—3:30pm

FREE FOOD!

Honor Society Tutors:

Honor Society members may provide free tutoring.

FREE Tutoring

Students who are interested in assistance can call an Honor Society Tutor to set up a meeting time. Typically mid-November is when Tutoring Lists will be available in the Counseling Center lobby (email gstrom@everettsd.org to inquire). All tutoring takes place after school in the JHS Library.

PLEASE NOTE:

There is no guarantee a tutoring list will be available, it depends if any Honor Society members wish to participate.

Teacher Assistance:

Set up a specific time with your teachers. Some provide weekly assistance open to any student on specific days of the week.

DAILY

7—7:30am
2—2:30pm

After School Tutorial Support:

Students can be referred through the POI process to get assistance after school. See your teacher about the referral process.

Mon—Thurs

2—2:30pm
