The Community

Spanning 39 square miles, Everett Public Schools serves the educational needs of over 20,000 students throughout their 26 schools. As the 14th largest school district in Washington State, it is located in one of the state's fastest growing areas, and the district enjoys a diversified economic base. Currently, the district's 26 schools include four high schools (grades 9-12), five middle schools (grades 6-8), and 17 elementary schools (grades K-5) with a culturally diverse student population.

The School

Henry M. Jackson High School (JHS) is a comprehensive four-year public school founded on the belief that all students can learn to a high standard. Opened in 1994 in the rapidly growing community of Mill Creek south of Everett, Jackson graduated its first senior class in 1997 and has grown to approximately 2,300 students. Since its inception, students, staff, and parents have collaboratively developed the academic curriculum, guided by state and national laws.
