We respectfully acknowledge that we are on the traditional lands of the Coast Salish, Snohomish, and Tulalip Peoples.

- Are you bilingual, or even trilingual? If you read, write, speak, and understand a language besides English, consider signing up for the World Language Assessment! You could earn up to four World Language credits and earn the Seal of Biliteracy on your diploma. Visit the Treasurer to complete the registration form and pay the $10 fee—seniors are free! Registration closes January 31st.
- GSA in B-234, Stair's room, after school. Be there!
- Congratulations to the following DECA students for making it to state: Shannon Chang, Brady Jewett-Slayton, Grace Stucky, Derik Logan and Mahin Sharma.
- There will be no BSU today. See you next week!
- If you are interested in helping plan our annual multicultural night, please join us in the library on Thursday, January 19 from 2:15-3:15.
- Hey EHS students - Yearbook is requesting your photos again. We need Then and Now photos, so if you have some photos from previous years (birthday parties, sports teams, 1st days of school etc) with other EHS students - submit that Then photo and take a photo of the same people for the Now photo. Please submit to the yearbook snap app password everettseagulls or email to kprice@everettsd.org.
- There will be an informational softball meeting on Wednesday, January 18 right after school in the cafeteria.
- If you are a Pacific Islander or someone who wants to know more about the Pacific Islands! Pacific Islander Club is having a club meeting this Thursday 01/19 in A310 from 2:10-3:10!
- On Saturday, the EHS Girls Wrestling team traveled to Blaine for the Borderite Blizzard Tournament and brought home a First-place team trophy. 10 EHS wrestlers placed in the Tournament. Sixth-place ribbons were awarded to Zendon Bugge and Madison McNeal-Martinis. Jay Williams won a 5th-place ribbon. Placing fourth was Shannon Chang. 3rd place awards were earned by Angeline Pillejera and Diala Haro. 2nd-place finishers were Sienna Kuehn and Sam Williamson. Winning First -place Individual ribbons were Maricela Mendoza-Garcia and Mia Cienega. Congratulation to EHS Girls Wrestling for being the Blaine Borderite Blizzard Champions!
