We respectfully acknowledge that we are on the traditional lands of the Coast Salish, Snohomish, and Tulalip Peoples.

- Are you looking for a quiet space to study for finals? Do you need an accountability partner? Look no further! Latinos Unidos is proud to host their annual “Study with a Buddy” day, after school today. Come on and join us for study, snacks and don’t forget to bring a buddy!
- Are you bilingual, or even trilingual? If you read, write, speak, and understand a language besides English, consider signing up for the World Language Assessment! You could earn up to four World Language credits and earn the Seal of Biliteracy on your diploma. Visit the Treasurer to complete the registration form and pay the $10 fee—seniors are free! Registration closes January 31st.
- Honor Society is asking for your help! For the month of January, we are asking for donations for the home for battered women shelter to help victims of domestic abuse. They need clothes, baby and feminine products, toiletries and more. Drop off donations by the boxes located by the main office & cafeteria.
- EHS Boys wrestling defeats Cascade 51-27. Way to go!
