We acknowledge the original inhabitants of this area, the sduhubš* people, and their successors, the Tulalip Tribes. Since time immemorial, they have hunted, fished, gathered on, and taken care of these lands and waters. We respect their sovereignty, their right to self-determination, and honor their sacred spiritual connection with the land and water. In Everett Public Schools, we strive to create equitable outcomes and build a culture of inclusive belonging for all students, teachers, staff, and community.

- No tea club today. Our next meeting will be next week on Nov. 21st.
- DECA members, if you want to compete in our Area competition come to a mandatory meeting today after school in room B315.
- Videographers listen up! We are looking for students to create original and innovative how-to video to teach the student body to use the new waste stations. Flyers are posted around the school with more information. Video submissions are due on December 18.
- Tell a friend you care with a cookie Gobble Gram from The Nest for just $1!
- Congratulations for Emmett Bell and Luca Morales for being chosen to participate in the All Northwest Jazz Band. Hundreds of students from 6 western states auditioned for only 20 spots in the band – so having two Seagulls in the band is a pretty amazing accomplishment! Way to go guys!
- Are you Team Edward or Team Jacob? Make your case as you read Twilight with the Bibliophiles! Sign up today and books will be distributed next Thursday during book club.
- DECA members, tomorrow there is a mandatory meeting in room B315 if you want to compete in the Area competition – see you there!
- The Gratitude Trees are starting to pop-up all-over campus. Please check them out and see what Seagulls are grateful for at this time of year.
- EHS Drama and Thespian Society presents their Fall Dramafest One Act Festival. Four short plays directed, designed, and performed by students! Four performances! Friday November 15 @ 7pm; Saturday November 16 @ 2pm & 7pm, and Sunday November 17 @ 2pm. Tickets are $8 w/ASB and $10 general admission. All sales go to support our spring musical of Disney's Newsies! Purchase your tickets online through GoFan or with cash/check in the Treasurer's office. See you there!
