We respectfully acknowledge that we are on the traditional lands of the Coast Salish, Snohomish, and Tulalip Peoples.

- Everyone is looking good in those cozy pajamas; tomorrow's Winter Spirit Day is Santa vs. Grinch, so wear red or wear green (or wear both if you're feeling both naughty and nice).
- It's Mesa Monday! La Mesa meets today in C110 after school! Come help wrap gifts—and practice Spanish—for the toy drive in our first collab meeting with Latinos Unidos. Nos vemos pronto!
- Today is STORY TIME in the library! Head to the library 1st lunch to hear Ms. Gaynier , or 2nd lunch to hear Ms. Eisenkraft; these two amazing teachers don't want to read to an empty room, so head there during lunch because we all could benefit from some relaxing story time this week ♡. Tomorrow, Tuesday, Ms. Scott will be reading 1st lunch, and Ms. Austin 2nd lunch. Storytime will be today, tomorrow, and Wednesday this week.
- Celebrate National Write a Friend Month with us this week by making a card in the library! Supplies provide, just bring your creative self.
- Writers! Sign up now to participate in a CHAMPS writing workshop about food! Go to the EHS library website to sign up.
- Want to audition for our Musical? Audition packets are available outside A126. Our Show is The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee - a musical comedy that has audience participation! Don't know how to audition, there is an audition workshop in the Little Theatre on Wednesday, December 14th @ 2:20pm! Come join us!
