We acknowledge the original inhabitants of this area, the sduhubš* people, and their successors, the Tulalip Tribes. Since time immemorial, they have hunted, fished, gathered on, and taken care of these lands and waters. We respect their sovereignty, their right to self-determination, and honor their sacred spiritual connection with the land and water. In Everett Public Schools, we strive to create equitable outcomes and build a culture of inclusive belonging for all students, teachers, staff, and community.

- In honor of Black History Month, we honor Haile Selassie. He was an Ethiopian emperor from 1930 to 1974. He proved African strength when the rest of the world believed Africans were inferior, weak, and in need of civilizing. His resistance to the colonialism of the Italians inspired many Africans not to submit to imperialism and fight for their God-given rights.
- Today is the 2nd day of our Black History Month Spirit Week, Icons and influencers. Great job to those who dressed up! Keep showing spirit and dress in HBCU merch or colors tomorrow for HBCU day!
