We respectfully acknowledge that we are on the traditional lands of the Coast Salish, Snohomish, and Tulalip Peoples.

- Hi, Seagulls! Is there a teacher or staff member who has positively impacted you at your time at EHS? Show your love by filling out the Golden Apple Award form! This Google form is posted on the Beak News and all over school, so vote for two teachers and a staff member to receive this coveted award! Voting closes TOMORROW DURING CHAMPS and will be announced at the Spring Pep Assembly! Vote NOW!
- Seagulls! Sign up this week to participate in our EHS Multicultural Festival on May 17, from 5-7 pm. Our theme is “Culture Shock: Sparking our Cultural Connection” and we hope you’ll electrify us all by signing up for a performance, a booth, an activity, or to help set-up or clean. Find the sign-up codes in your email, from the Culture Shock posters, or by contacting Ms. Alcantar, Ms. Potter, or Ms. Payne
- Attention 9th graders! Let’s “turnip the beet” and “taco” ‘bout your missing assignments! FRESHMEN ONLY, you’re invited to join us next week for “Eat & Complete” sessions to make up missing work in English, Math, Health & Science! Snacks will be provided, and you can take the activity bus home at 3:30! Check your e-mail for sign-up details.
- Do you like theatre? Do you like yes 'and'-ing? Come down to the Little Theater on March 19th from 2:20 to 3:20 for Gull-A-Bulls Improv Club! Play fun Improv games and have fun with your friends! Bus passes are provided.
- On, Saturday, Everett NJROTC Seagull Company competed in the Northwest Drill and Rifle Championship in Oregon City, OR. This competition is comprised of 36 JROTC Units in the northwest, west of the Cascades. Seagull Company participated in Color Guard, Unarmed Drill Team and Precision Marksmanship. Our results: Color Guard 4th place led by Saryn Hane, Unarmed Drill Team 6th place led by Isabella Saldana, Precision Marksmanship 3rd place led by Stella Gladkov. Hooyah, Battle Birds!
