We respectfully acknowledge that we are on the traditional lands of the Coast Salish, Snohomish, and Tulalip Peoples.

- GSA will have it's first meeting of the year in Mr. Stair's room after school on Tuesday! Hope to see you in B-234 after school Tuesday.
- Calling all dancers! Thank you to the awesome dances who turned out last week. It's not too late join Flow Latino. If you like to dance, and you like latino music come check us out. We have a choreographer who will teaches us, so no experience necessary. Our next meeting is TODAY, Sept. 19th after school in the cafeteria.
- This week we have THREE library club meetings right after school! TSA will meet on Monday, Makerspace gets Tuesday, and the Bibliophile Society will meet on Thursday. Stop by the library after school to find out all about these library clubs!
- Seagulls! We want to know what your favorite read was this summer AND how many books you read! Help us improve our library by completing the survey in your school email.
- Gaming Club is back! Do you have a computer or dice that need to play? Come to S-102, Sandwick's room, after school today for your computer, card, or tabletop gaming needs. Game on!
- Hey Everett! Latinos Unidos is back! Join us this Wednesday the 21st afterschool in room C112 for piñata making celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month! Remember this Wednesday, piñata making, C112! See you there!
- Hey Seagulls! We've got an exciting week lined up in the Career Center. This Thursday during REP Central Washington University will be here to talk about their school and the programs they offer there. If you are at all interested in attending Central, don't miss this opportunity to meet their admissions counselor. Passes are required for this event so make sure and stop by the Career Center in A107 before Thursday to get one. Also, the University of Washington application is now open and due November 15th. If you are interested in becoming a Husky next year, make sure and get your application started because the deadline comes quickly! Have questions? Stop by or email Ms. Selders.
- Calling all students interested in joining a new club focused on serving our community through service projects and volunteering to make our world a better place! We need interested EHS students to get our club started. Sign-up in the Career Center in A107 if you are interested in being part of this exciting new opportunity.
- Can you read, write, speak, and understand another language? If you answered yes, you should register for the World Language Assessment! Students can earn up to four World Language credits by showing they are fluent in a non-English language. Visit the Treasurer to complete the registration form and pay the $10 fee. Registration closes September 30th and test dates are October 20th and 26th.
- Please join Knowledge Bowl for our first meeting of the year in A-331 from 2:15 – 3:00 PM today!

Today in sports

- Tennis vs Arlington at Clark Park at 3:30pm
