We respectfully acknowledge that we are on the traditional lands of the Coast Salish, Snohomish, and Tulalip Peoples.

- Students can sign up for the World Language Assessment now. The cost is $10 dollars and they must submit an enrollment form which can be found at the Treasurer's office. The deadline for registration is October 31st.
- Are you interested in Chinese Games, Food, Art or Movies? If so please join us at Chinese Club in Room S101 after school today September 20th. This club is open to all, not just Chinese speakers. We hope to see you there!
- It is STILL National Library Card Sign-Up Month and we want YOU to be armed with the power of a library card. Show your library card—online or plastic, to Ms. Payne in the library, and you'll get a treat.
- Hey Seagulls, is your math class starting to feel a little rough? Don't wait until it looks and smells bad too: come get help early and often. Dr. Morgan is here to help you Tuesdays and Wednesdays after school in the cafeteria, or at lunch on Tuesdays and Thursdays in the Student Leadership room above the piano in the cafeteria.
- If you would like to sign up for First Chapter Friday trivia battles, sign up to attend our informational meeting on October 3. Check your school email or visit the library for the sign up link!
- Congratulations to our first First Chapter Friday reader of the year! Natalie Cobb just finished the cutest rom-com called Better than the Movies, and won a free drink at the EHS Coffee House! Hooray, Natalie!
- Are you interested in Plants and Rock? Then come to the first GeoCology Meeting of the year today afterschool in S-104.
- EHS Thespian Society's Fall Audition and Crew Packets are due tomorrow, September 21st. Remember, you must sign up for an audition slot online as well. Pick up your packet outside A126. Questions? Email Advisor Sara Coiley.
- Latinos Unidos is meeting after school today in C110. Come join us to make your own piñata and celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month with workshops. See you there!
- Attention Juniors & Seniors interested in learning a trade. Everett High has been invited to attend an exciting hands-on event on October 12th called "Trade Up". At "Trade Up", students will have the opportunity to learn about various trades like fire-fighting, plumbing, carpentry, electrician, advanced manufacturing and more. Space is limited to the first twenty students who are interested so don't delay. Stop by the College and Career Center in A107 today to sign-up.
- Hey EHS fashionistas! Are in looking for a place to learn how to create with fibers? A new club is looking for interested members. The list of possibilities includes quilting, clothes making, knitting, felting and embroidery. Mrs. Gaub will guide those interested in using the fantastic sewing center in the library. Start by finding the QR code and fill out our interest survey. Or email Mrs. Gaub!
- Yearbooks sales end September 27th! Yearbooks can be purchased at the Treasurer's office and are $60 with an ASB and $65 without.
- Anyone on the girls wrestling or basketball teams or interested in being on these teams is welcome and encouraged to come to the weight room after school for workouts with teammates! All grades should attend! 2:15-3:30
- Anyone on the boys soccer team or interested in being on the team is welcome and encouraged to come to the weight room after school for workouts with teammates! All grades should attend! 3:15-4:15

Today in sports

- Boys tennis vs Marysville-Pilchuck at Clark Park at 3:30
- Cross Country at Shorewood at 3:45

Pledge of Allegiance

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

MAKE IT A GREAT DAY EVERETT HIGH, THE CHOICE IS YOURS!
