

BRASS

We instruments golden are brass,
We give marches and fanfares their class.
We sound fierce or sonorous,
You can never ignore us,
Whether solo or playing "en masse".

We listen at once to the high trumpet blast
You hear him—he makes you—
from first note to last.

Trumpet