

Wednesday, January 10

- No Name-Calling Week is January 15-19. It's a week organized by K-12 educators and students to end name-calling and bullying in schools.
- Improv! Improv! Improv meets every Monday and we are building our team back up. Come laugh with us!
- Aaaaayyyyyy!!!! Senior class shirts are on sale NOW at the Treasurer's Office. Cost is $15 for a shirt and a lifetime of memories. Get yours today!
- No dance team practice today. See Mrs. Harber if you have questions.
- Everett High School Drama is hosting tap workshops for the next three weeks open to all students! Our next workshop is Thursday 2:15 - 4:15pm. No experience necessary and just wear your favorite lace up shoe. Socks work too! Join us! For more information stop by the Little Theatre - room 104!
- Current sophomores and juniors interested in hearing more about the AJAC Youth Apprenticeship in aerospace manufacturing for next year...visit the Career Center during Lunch today to listen to a presentation. You get free training and college credits, all while still in High School. We have 8 positions for Everett Public School Students.
- Congratulations to Boys Swim team on their victory over Monroe yesterday.

Today in Sports:

- Girls' Basketball vs Marysville-Getchell at 7:15
- Girls' Wrestling at Mount Vernon at 6:00