- The next Latinos Unidos meeting will be this Thursday, October 10th after school in C112! See you there!
- MakerSpace has extended the deadline for the guitar building applications to Friday, October 18th. If you would like to build your very own electric guitar come pick up an application in the Library.
- HOSA is meeting today after school in Mrs. DeLuca's room, S201. If you are interested in a healthcare profession, this is the club for you. Today we will learn more about upcoming events and about fundraising for the year. Hope to see you there!
- Congratulations to Alexandra Rassbach, this week's First Chapter Friday winner! She read I was Their American Dream, which is also this week's featured book. The author uses humor in her graphic memoir, about growing up with her Egyptian-Filipino immigrant parents, while shaping her own cultural identity in the United States.
- Hey Seagulls! Come to International Student Organization in Ms. Parks Room A-310 today for a presentation on the Marshall Islands! We will also be learning a traditional dance!
- Attention Gamers - this week's Gaming Club has been cancelled. Keep strong, game long.
- Attention Freshmen! If you are struggling with homework or just need a little extra help, our GEAR UP team is here to help. Next Wednesday during the PSAT, we'll be having a freshmen study session in the cafeteria. Stop by anytime between 7:30 and 11 for help with homework or if you just want somewhere quiet to study.
- Calling all earthlings! There is a green club meeting on Thursday in Mrs. Addie Smith's room (S202) during CHAMPS time. If you are already a member or if you are just interested, you may talk to Mrs. Smith before Thursday to get a pass! Everyone is welcome, regardless of skill, passion, or knowledge. By the way, members and applicants: please check your email.
- For our October Makerspace lunch activity, we will be making Franken-Toys. (Think Sid, from Toy Story.) If you have extra toys, like Barbies, dolls, cars, etc., that we can destroy, please bring your donations to the library by Oct. 15th.
- Interesting in Aerospace, Manufacturing or Mechanical Engineering? There are a few more spots open for the EvCC AMTEC National Manufacturing Day Field Trip during 4th, 5th & 6th period on October 15. Take a tour & make a project. Get Field Trip Forms in Career Center TODAY!
- Our Annual High school and Beyond Night is tonight from 5:30-7:30 pm. There will be FREE pizza in the Cafeteria for you and your family, followed by an inspiring Keynote Speaker in the Gym, representatives from technical schools, the military, community colleges and 4 year colleges and universities in the Gym. See you tonight at 5:30 pm.
- Hey gulls! Are you interested in getting your very own homemade scrunchie? Come get them in Mrs. Price's room during first lunch, A306 or at both lunches on Friday. All proceeds go towards your yearbooks! Fly on over and get one now.
- Seniors – it's that time of the year! The deadline to submit your senior and baby photos to the yearbook is November 13th. Photos should be emailed to ehsyearbook2020@gmail.com or brought to room A-306, Mrs. Price's room.
- One, two, three strikes you're out... Wait, Wait, Wait. Strikes are a good thing. Girls bowling is right around the corner. Come find out what it's all about at an informational meeting in Coach Bovey's room on October 15th in S-205 during CHAMPS time.
- Homecoming tickets are on sale NOW at the Treasurer's office and will be sold through Thursday, October 17th! If you want to bring a non-EHS student as a guest, make sure to get the Guest forms filled out and turned in by Tuesday, October 15th. Tickets are $10 with ASB, $15 without, and $20 for a guest who does not attend Everett High. Buy yours TODAY!
- Congratulations to Kiyoshi Colon for his singles win against Snohomish.
