

Monday, November 13

- Apologies to all gamers, but Gaming Club is cancelled today. See you next week: same bat time, same Cthulu channel.
- Join Latin Image Tuesday November 14th after school as we host Aldo Nuñez, Youth Employment Navigator with Workforce Snohomish. Come hear her inspiring story and tips on how you can get employment!
- Everett High School Students! Yearbook is conducting class polls from now until this Friday at 1:00 pm. Log into Everett.voting4schools.com to cast your vote for your class.
- Seniors, are you working hard to complete you UW application by the Nov 15 deadline and need a little help? UW Multicultural & Diversity Dept. will be in the Career Center today at 12:30 to help you! Sign up in NAVIANCE if you want a pass.
- Do you like sports? Do you like digital media? Would you like to earn a Varsity letter? Mr. Plucker is looking for 3-4 students that would be interested in managing the digital score table in the gym this winter. Please contact Mr. Plucker for more information.
- Homecoming pictures have arrived and can be picked up in the front office before/after school or during lunch.
- Everett High School Drama Club presents Calvin Berger. Tickets are on sale in the treasurer's office now. $8 for students w/ASB, and $12 general. For more info please check out our posters on campus. There is a link to our Everett High Drama Club website.

Today in Sports: