

Tuesday, November 14

- The library will be closed during 5th period today due to the Attendance Meeting.
- Join Latin Image today Tuesday, November 14th after school in the A107 as we host Aldo Nuñez, Youth Employment Navigator with Workforce Snohomish. Come hear his inspiring story and tips on how to get a job!
- Food Drive Delivery Day is almost here! We need your help to us deliver the food baskets to their families on NOV 21st! Want to help? Rider/ Driver packets can be found outside the treasurer's office after school TODAY! Completed packets can must be turned in by this Friday, November 17th. 16 rider/driver teams will be randomly selected via lottery! Hurry and get your team packet submitted by FRIDAY!
- Mid-term grades are out and if yours need work, you should come to Seagull Saturday this weekend. 9:00 a.m. to noon, this Saturday. Your favorite teacher might be there.
- The principal at Madison Elementary School would like to have EHS students read with her students. If you need service hours, this is a great way to get hours while helping someone learn how to read. If you are interested, please sign up with Ms. Payne, in the library. Transportation available.
- Everett High School Students! Yearbook is conducting class polls from now until this Friday at 1:00 pm. Log into Everett.voting4schools.com to cast your vote for your class.
- Western Washington University College Representative will be here on Tues Nov 21 @ 1:30. Check out the other Career Center Events: Central Washington University On the Spot Admit Day, UW Bothell Senior Application Day, and the Sno-Isle TECH Information Session. Sign up to attend in NAVIANCE.

Today in Sports:

- Girls Bowling at Majestic Lanes at 3:15