

Wednesday, September 13

- Attention Juniors! Our School Day PSAT is Wednesday, October 11. Only junior PSAT scores are eligible for the National Merit Scholarship Program. If you plan to take the PSAT exam, you must purchase your test booklet from the Treasurer's office for $25. Book sales begin tomorrow and end next Wednesday, September 20, so don't delay!
- If you are still in need of a locker, they can be checked out at the Treasurer's Office before/after school, passing time or during lunch.
- Attention all gamers! Gaming Club starts this coming Monday. Come to room S-102 after school, your one stop for computer gaming, Wii and X-box, chess, D&D, card games and more. See you there!
- Your summer reading assignments are due this Friday. Turn them in to your English teachers. If you need help finding a book, stop by the library today!
- Does designing and building robots or programming sounds interesting to you? COME TO ROBOTICS! Robotics meets Mondays and Wednesdays starting September 18 from 5-7pm in E205. See Mrs. Ozbun for more information.
- Hey, freshmen! Want to meet more people, get involved, have a voice, and make the most of your high school experience? Then RUN FOR OFFICE! It's a wide-open race because everyone is new to Everett High, so this year is your year to throw your hat in the ring. Pick up an election packet outside the Treasurer's Office today.
- Readers wanted! If you want to join the Bookworms Anonymous club this year, we have lots of fun book-related activities and service project in the works. Come to our informational meeting tomorrow, after school, in the library
- Auditions for our fall production of Calvin Berger are tomorrow! Calvin Berger follows four relatable teens as they experience first loves, hilariously awkward insecurities, and the challenges of high school. Sign up for an audition spot and grab an audition packet on the big black entrance doors of the Little Theatre. See you there!
- Swim against Lake Stevens, Avery Harber got first place in the 100 back and qualified for districts. Hailey Faith got first place in dive. Way to go!

Today in Sports:

- Boys tennis vs Marysville-Getchell at 3:30