

Monday, September 18

- Did you purchase an ASB card? If so, you are eligible to get a free t-shirt. T-shirts will be given out during both lunches all through this week to the first 20 students from each class that show up. If you didn't buy an ASB card, or came too late to get a free one, shirts are $5
- Attention ALL DECA members: Membership forms must be turned in to Mrs. McCormick by this Friday, September 22. We will have our DECA Kick-off meeting next Tuesday, September 26 from 2:15-2:45. This is a mandatory meeting for all members.
- Congratulations to all 28 students that auditioned for our fall musical, Calvin Berger. The talent in our school is overwhelming and it was so difficult to cast only 16. We are looking forward to a fabulous new year of theatre! Calvin Berger tickets will go on sale soon! Be looking out for show posters on campus.
- Today is our first Improv Club meeting! 2:30 - 4:00pm in the Little Theatre. Come on out and laugh with us! We hope to see you there.
- Attention Freshman! You still have a chance to turn in your Election packets. Turn them in by the end of the day, today, to Mrs. Adams in room A328.
- If you have an ASB card you can now get 15% off at Major League Pizza, 15% off at Rays Drive In and 10% off at Silver Cup Coffee!
- Tomorrow will be our first Latin Image meeting of the year. Everyone is welcome to join us after school in the Career Center room A107!
- The Nest will be opening next Monday, September 25! We are located in the Cafeteria and will be open during both lunches on Monday-Thursday. The Nest is the place to shop for Seagull apparel, snacks, drinks, and much more!
- Attention all gamers! Gaming Club starts today. Come to room S-102 after school, your one stop for computer gaming, Wii and X-box, chess, D&D, card games and more. See you there!
- Off Campus permit stickers are now available at Mrs. Kippenhan's desk in the Main Office. Come pick yours up before or after school, during lunch, or during passing time.
