

Good morning, today is Tuesday, January 30th

Today is the first day of the new semester.

Because of the non-school day on Monday, GIVE club will meet today during lunch. Please join us in the library if you can. 6th graders, we need you! If you have never been to GIVE club but are interested in checking it out, please join us today at lunch. We need more 6th grade students for second semester to help us plan some fun school events.

EL Study Hall is on today in Mrs. Fariz's room (306) from 3-4. Remember to sign up for the activity bus or arrange for a ride home.

Do you know what it means to Guard your Character? You can think of the word Guard to help explain. Think of G for Grit, U for Universal Respect, A for Acceptance, R for Responsibility, and D for Do the Right Thing. Check out the display case in front of the office to learn more. A huge thank you to Mrs. Hines art classes for the awesome Guard Your Character sign.

Thank you, Gateway, remember to guard your character.
