

Here is our news for Monday, Oct. 29th

Tomorrow is the day to vote for this year's yearbook cover! When you get to 1st period tomorrow, know which cover you are voting for (letters A-Q), which make the voting process go quickly and efficiently. We will announce the winner on Wednesday.

There is a Yearbook Club meeting tomorrow after school for the communications and reporters committees. Make sure you sign up for the activity bus during your lunch or have a ride home at 4:00.

Tomorrow is the BIG DAY! It's the day we find out who won the 1st annual Gateway GRIT poster contest. The winner receives a certificate, money to spend in the student store, and page for her or his poster in the Yearbook. Who won? By tomorrow as this time, you will know!

Ms. Bus would like everyone to sign up for Fuel-up-to-play-60 by the end of November. If you do the challenges and record your information it will enter you into drawings for prizes. Please email me your information of username and password so you get credit for signing up and your name on the poster in the gym. We have received a lot from this program, especially from last year, it has given us new equipment for our PE department and I would like to continue getting this support for our PE program. Thanks to the 6 or 7 who have already signed up, hope to get your emails soon.

One week left to work on your Reflections Entries. They are due Friday, Nov. 9th. Don't forget to include your signed entry form.
