

Good morning Gateway Guardians,

Here is our news for Monday, Nov. 5th

A big congratulations to 6th grade students - they sold the most items in the fundraiser! 6th graders will get to enjoy music at lunch all this week. Thank you to all who participated!

In honour of veterans, the ASB has placed an American flag in the commons. Please take a moment to write the name of a veteran from your family on a blue star and then tape it onto the flag. We will proudly display the flag at our Veteran's Day assembly on Friday.

Support our neighbors at Forest View this week and visit their library book fair. They have great new releases including the newest Diary of a Wimpy Kid book. The fair is open Monday through Thursday from 1-4:00, and Friday until 3:00. Please make sure to go home first and then return instead of waiting on campus.

Attention GIVE club: We will meet today at lunch. Because of the shortened lunch period, please plan on a quick planning meeting.

Last week to work on your Reflections Entries. They are due due Friday, Nov. 9th. . Entries will also be accepted at the PTSA Membership Meeting that night. Don't forget to include your entry form.
