

Good morning, today is Tuesday, December 12th

There will be a 6th Grade BHIP meeting this Thursday in Mrs. Lawson's classroom.

There will be a 7th grade BHIP meeting this Thursday in room 219. We hope to see you there!

We will have EL Study Hall today from 3:00 - 4:00 in Room (306)

Are you ready for Books over Break? Make sure you have a book to read over our Winter Break! Visit the library or ask your ELA teacher for details!

Congratulations to our students whose art entries advance to the Council level of the competition. We had 22 entries submitted at Gateway but could only advance 20. All the art that advanced to Council is now on display at the CRC (community resource center). The Reflections Celebration and awards is January 3rd at 5:30pm at the CRC building. Thank you to Lona Brask and Mrs. Hines for all their help.

Film: Hayden Foley

Literature: Ronak Lulla, MaKensie Yamamoto

Music: Dylan Berlier

Photography: Landon Anderson, Brooklyn Buchanan, Quinn Pfeifer, Paige Ressler, Daphne White

Visual Art: Lucy LaChance, Hannah Peterson, Katherine Shen, Alexis Ferguson, Kaitlyn Giles, Catriona Peters, Skylar Rhim, Kayla Shin, Grace Walsh, Alison Kim

A huge thank you to everyone who donated to our food drive. This year was Gateway's best food drive ever, with over 2,150 total items donated. Congratulations on helping our community! Even one item makes a difference, so thank you for your help! The competition was close, with 7 classes donating over 100 items. Four classes donated over 200 items each. In fourth place: Ms. Griffin's class with 213 items. In third place: Ms. Tabor's class with 215 items. In second place: Ms. Sowa's classroom with 250 items, and the winner with 10.7 items brought in per student and a total of 278 items---Mrs. Walsh's class.

Thank you, Gateway, remember to guard your character!