

Good morning,
Here is our news for Thursday, Dec. 6th

Attention! If you sold 14 or more items in the fundraiser and earned the field trip to go bowling, please stop by front office to pick up your permission slip.

Thank you to everyone who attended the Hour of Code yesterday. If you missed it, you can still participate. Check the library website and visit the tab called "Technology in the Library." Check out Code.org and the other activities you can do online at school in the library or at home.

There are lots of great Gateway Reads books on the shelves, stop by and find one today.

Have you found Shelfie? She has been hiding in a new spot each day, recommending her favorite books. Remember to fill out the Shelfie tracking form and turn it in tomorrow to be entered in the prize drawing.

Dig through your closets this weekend to find clothes for our school's spirit day!

On Monday we have character day, dress as your favourite meme, character, superhero, or any fictional character! Remember all school dress code rules apply.

Tuesday is twin day! Dress with your friends and have fun!

On Wednesday we have Awareness Day. Support the cause by wearing a shirt for the cause or the color of the cause.

Thursday is Throwback day! Wear clothes from the 70's, 80's and 90's.

And lastly, Friday is color day! Sixth graders wear the color blue, seventh graders wear the color grey and eighth graders wear the color black.

Remember to participate in our school spirit week and have fun!

Remember Gateway, guard your character!
