

Good morning, today is Thursday, March 1st

Now that it is March, do you know what is happening? It means March Madness is coming soon! We'll be picking our Sweet 16 bracket of Gateway's favorite books for the annual tournament. Stay tuned for details in tomorrow's GBN.

Wow, Gateway, you rock! You have brought in almost $1000 so far for our Heifer International fundraiser. Did you know that Mrs. Lawson's class has already purchased a goat? We're still going strong, so bring in your donations tomorrow or donate online. We still have buttons and stickers left. If you donated in the beginning of the week or online, and didn't get one, visit the library to get yours.

Do you want to make a difference in your school? Do you love technology? Join the Student Tech Summit on March 7th from 5:30-7:30 at the district Community Resource Center. Share your perspective about learning in a digital world and give feedback about potential student devices. Did we mention free pizza? See the flier in the library for more information.

Can you believe author Brandon Mull is coming to Gateway? Stop by the library to pick up an order form if you would like to buy an autographed copy of any of his award winning books like Fablehaven or Five Kingdoms.

Attention 6th – 8th grade girls: You are invited to come to the Inspire STEM festival for hands-on, brain-teasing science fun, exploration, and inspiration. On Saturday, March 24th, Mrs. Sowa, Mrs. Werder, and Ms. Vantuyl will be taking a group of 40 girls to U-Dub Bothell to experience interactive exhibits, workshops, and talks from former NASA astronauts. It is on a Saturday, but lunch is included! If you are interested, pick up a permission form from the front office. We only have space for 40 students and students will be chosen on a first come first serve basis, so turn in your forms to Mrs. Lambert as soon as possible. The deadline for permission forms are due by March 9.

8th grade BHip meets today in Mrs. Westlin's room at lunch.

The library will be closed this morning for a district meeting.
