

Good morning, Gateway. Today is Thursday, February 16, 2023.

_____ Attention 8th graders: Thanks to all of you who voted in this year's 8th grade Most Likely To contest. Now for the results.

Most likely to win a Nobel Peace Prize: Milena Ghandilyan & Sahaja Kakumanu

Most likely to break a world record: Bradley Nakajima & Zachary Albright

Most likely to cure cancer: Josh Davis & Akshay Roshan

Most likely to travel the world: Eugene Yi & Prabhjot Kour

Most likely to be a member of Congress: Brady Boyd & Yana Joshi

Most likely to go to the World Cup: Morgan Burley & Ashton Resendiz

Most likely to become a world leader: Roya Farhat & Sidrha Baraasi

Most likely to star in a Netflix original: Zachary Imah & Keira Fukushima

Most likely to attend an Ivy league university: Oyumaa Tugsuu & Mysha Ali

Most likely to become the richest person in the world: Valentina Nava Sarabia & Cheryl Augustine

Most likely to become a master chef: Josh Mack & Gino DiPasquale

Most likely to become a best-selling author: Kiera Dickson & Aditi Keesari

Most likely to attend Juilliard: Harini Sathishkumar & Isabella Molano

Most likely to survive a zombie apocalypse: Erica Yong & Abhitha Akula

Congrats to all of our winners! Please check your outlook email for a message from Mrs. Stoskopf regarding your pictures, which will be taken next week.

_____ Attention all 7th and 8th graders who applied for the National Junior Honor Society. Please check your student emails. Membership decisions were emailed out last Friday. If you have any questions regarding your membership decision, please reach out to Mr. Anderson or Ms. Barbeau.

_____ 7th grade PRIDE club is cancelled this week due to a district counselor meeting. We will meet again Thursday, February 23rd.

_____ AV club is meeting after school in room 218; sign up on the Activity Bus list in the Commons if you need a ride home.

_____ Gateway Guardians, as you know, this week, GIVE club is having a Paws for a Cause fundraiser that is a competition between the grades, but now, there is an extra bonus. If you donate $2 or more on Friday, you will get a complementary button. There's a new twist with 6th grade currently in the lead with a total of $132, followed closely behind by the 8th grade with $123, and 7th grade with $86. But if everyone donates during our final day tomorrow, who knows who will win?

_____ ASB is hosting a door decorating contest this month! Choose a teacher who you want to help with their door and ask them when you can meet to plan and decorate their door! The theme is "Kindness" so pick out something that will spread kindness throughout our school. The winning class will get a treat for the students who helped with the door and will get to host the Gateway Gorilla!

_____ Sports photo day is next Wednesday, February 22. Be sure to bring your photo packet with you to the photo session during practice.

_____ Today at our Girls Basketball teams take on Voyager Middle School here at Gateway. Show up and support our teams!

_____ The Student Store will be open tomorrow during lunch. Please bring small bills.

_____ This Friday is Gateway Spirit Day. Wear your T-shirts, sweatshirts, sunglasses and more!

_____ The Library is closed for WLA testing today.

And remember, Gateway, to GUARD your character!