_____ March Madness is back! We are ready to start the 2022 round of the Battle of the Books! Battle of the Books is a Sweet Sixteen bracket where students (and staff) predict which book will win the championship title of “Gateway’s Favorite Book.” First, grab a tournament bracket from the library. Check out the book title match-ups, fill out your bracket and predict which book will advance in each round. Brackets are due on Friday, March 18th. After they are in, the voting begins! Jump online starting Monday and vote in each round every couple of days. There are prizes along the way—for students who vote, and also for the winner who makes the best bracket prediction. Visit the library for more information.
