_____ Visit the library to enter our two-sentence horror story contest. That's right, write a scary story in just two sentences. Check out the video in the library using our QR code to learn more. Stories are due at the end of the day Friday.

_____ The ballots were cast and we have a winner for this year's yearbook cover contest! We had so many amazing covers this year, and all of them will be included on the various pages of this year's yearbook. But, we can only have one cover for our yearbook, and this year's winner is entry TT. Heidi Candland did a great job creating a Spotify-type cover for our Reaching for the Stars theme. Congratulations Heidi! Be sure to check your Outlook email for a message from Mrs. Stoskopf.

_____ Universal Respect means showing consideration for other people and the environment, as well as being respectful of yourself. While most of us are careful not to criticize others, many of us engage in negative self-talk by criticizing our own looks or abilities. Louise Hay makes an interesting point, "You have criticized yourself for years and it hasn't worked. Try approving of yourself and see what happens." In other words, look for your good qualities and be appreciative of your strengths. As for your weaknesses, know that everyone has them and try to view them as opportunities to grow. The way you treat yourself sets the standard for how others will treat you; by respecting yourself, you will gain the respect of others.

_____ Soccer tryouts start today. Boys' tryouts are 10/25 through 10/27; Girls' are 10/25 and 10/27 only. You must be completely cleared before you can try out. Please see Mrs. Trachte at the Office if you have any questions about sports.

_____ And lastly in fundraising news, great job Guardians! The first night we raised $1280. The top class right now is tied with Mrs. Matheson and Mrs. Sweeney both having raised $225. Squishies will be delivered during second period today!

_____ And remember, Gateway, to GUARD your character!

GOAL: $20,000
