

Good morning, Gateway! Today is Tuesday, November 15.

_____ Attention GIVE club, we will meet today in the library at our usual time at lunch.

_____ Students who are waiting for the buses, please stand behind the yellow line on the sidewalk. No students should be on the bus side of the yellow line. Do not ever touch buses as they are passing. This is a serious safety issue.

_____ There will be no after school clubs nor 4 PM activity bus today. Sports practices and the 5 PM sports bus will be on the regular schedule.

_____ We are getting ready for our first Soccer game this Thursday, November 17. If you're on the Soccer Team, your athletic fee must be paid by Wednesday to be eligible to play in the game on Thursday. The first Boys Basketball and Volleyball games are next Tuesday, November 22, so be sure to pay your fee by Monday.

_____ Softball Team and Cross Country Teams: Please return your uniforms to the Office as soon as possible.

_____ The Prodigies for Peace Writing and Art Contest helps our local community celebrate the life of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Check out the announcement on the Gateway website homepage for more information. The deadline for entries is December 16.

_____ Today we highlight the Confederate Tribes of the Colville Reservation- The traditional territories of the Colville Tribes extend across eastern Washington and into portions of British Columbia, Oregon and Idaho. While culturally distinct and diverse, there are a great deal of shared general social and cultural practices and teachings. Today the Colville tribes support their community through a variety of businesses that have created a variety of jobs for their communities.

And remember, Gateway, to GUARD your character!
