

15 FCCLA members competed at regionals on Wednesday, February 10, 2016. They put together amazing projects which they will bring to state at the end of March.

Gold Winners

Mariah Agyapong and Camille Green

Promote and Publicize FCCLA- H.M. JHS FCCLA

Mariah and Camille developed a promotion and publicity plan to increase involvement and membership in our FCCLA chapter. Their project increased participation in competitive events from 5 teams to 7 and increased chapter membership by 35%. In addition, they completed an on-site case study to demonstrate marketing skills.

Tessa Locknane and Abby Hicks

Hospitality, Tourism and Recreation- Bake it 'til You Make It

Tessa and Abby researched and compared restaurants to develop their own business plan and website for a boutique bakery. In addition, they completed an on-site case study to demonstrate their problem-solving skills.

Azie Thandabath and Jashan Gill

Entrepreneurship- J&A Bionics

Azie and Jashan developed a business and marketing plan for a non-profit that supplies prosthetics to children.

Veronica Martinez and Kelton Green

Food Innovations- Soup Please!

Veronica and Kelton created their own recipe for high fiber meal that appealed to children. They made a vegetable soup, tested it on focus groups and modified their product from the feedback received. They also created a marketing plan and packaging for their product with complete nutrition facts.

Erica George, Momoka Kitatini and Paulina Pena

Illustrated Talk- Stay Alive, Don't Use Your Phone and Drive

The ladies researched and created a presentation about the dangers of using a phone while driving. They raised awareness on this topic by presenting to numerous drivers ed classes.

Lizzie Thomas and Jace Lee

Life Event Planning- Budgeting for UW Dorms

Lizzie and Jace completed a budgeting project for a moving into the dorms at UW. They evaluated their needs, wants, and financial challenges to create their budget. Then they compared multiple features and places to purchase the items they needed while staying within their budget.

Bronze Winner

Chantsamone Keomphay

Fashion Design- Fairy Tale Dresses

Chantasmonne researched, developed and marketed her own clothing label, designed a four-piece collection, and constructed a sample dress with an original flat pattern.

Room Consultant

Zariah Smith

Monica Andersen (formerly Lochrie)

H.M. Jackson High School, B 206
Family and Consumer Sciences
FCCLA Advisor