

April 23, 2023

The Washington FBLA State Business Leadership Conference (SBLC) is the premier event for Washington's FBLA members. JHS FBLA joined members from across the state in Spokane for four days of incredible training, intense competition, and inspiration. Top performers at the SBLC

(6 JHS members) advanced to the National Leadership Conference (NBLC) held in Atlanta, GA in June.

Here are the results of Washington FBLA State Business Leadership Conference (SBLC). JHS had 20 competitors. The following students ranked in their event:

2nd Place	Insurance and Risk Management	Andrea Paul
3rd Place	International Business	Mohriz Murad Sanchit Goel
3rd Place	Website Design	Arjun Debnath Sanjit Subramaniam Dritesh Avdani
5th Place	Data Analysis	Hasan Wazir Nikhil Kashyap Daniel Lee
6th Place	Introduction to Business Concepts	Nikhil Kashyap
7th Place	Entrepreneurship	Tvisha Mishra
7th Place	Chapter Community Service Project	Jasmine Ho Atrina Jabbari
7th Place	Accounting	Jasmine Ho
10th Place	Banking and Financial Systems	Calvin Shaw

Students that placed in the top 4 automatically qualify for National Competition in Atlanta, GA. However, if someone in the top 4 cannot compete at SBLC, then the next qualifying member will move up. However, some competitors that were on the edge, may still qualify for FBLA NBLC.

In addition, JHS FBLA Chapter also received both the 2023 Washington Business Leadership Conference:

- Largest Percent Increase in Membership Award
- WA FBLA State Gold Seal Chapter Award

Venya Pillai completed her final duties as our 2022-2023 Northwest Region Vice-President. She served in that position last year and did an excellent job.

