

March 2024

This past weekend HOSA attended our state leadership conference/competition in Spokane. We had an amazing group this year and the largest group we have ever taken. The group was an excellent representation of JHS values with a great competitive spirit. Below are our results and some photos. Names that are highlighted have qualified for our international competition in Houston at the end of June.

Results

Red Cross Volunteer Recognition:

Jason Raphael Jose Pragash- 76 hours, Gold Level

Andrew Lee- 85 hours, Gold Level

Jason Lee- 100 hours, Gold Level

Chapter recognition- Gold Level

Barbara James Service Award Recipient:

Samiksha Rao

Shreyas Bulusu

Shreya Karthik

Claire Kojima

Maaz Murad

Katie Shen

Emotional Well Being Challenge Team (recognition at SLC)

Elise Sugawara, Rudraa Motghare, and Samiksha Rao, Ishani Gautam, Shreya Karthik, Nidhi Krishna

National Geographic Exams- Recognition (these are not ILC qualifying exams)

Navari Lui- 4th place in Chemistry

Nikhil Yammanuru- 3rd place Physics

Medical Terminology

Nikhil Yammanuru- 5th place (could qualify if he gets bumped up, if 2 people above him cannot compete)

Behavioral Health

Shreyas Bulusu- 3rd place (qualifies for ILC)

Maaz Murad- 4th (could qualify if he gets bumped up, because someone else above him cannot compete)

Community Awareness Team

Elise Sugawara, Rudraa Motghare, and Samiksha Rao- 3rd place (qualifies for ILC)

Job Seeking Skills

Ishani Gautam- 2nd place (qualifies for ILC)

Research Poster

Shreya Karthik- 2nd place (qualifies for ILC)

Emily Borden, M.Ed., NBCT

