

Hola,

I am very happy that Juliana Mothersbaugh, AP Spanish Language student, won third prize in Narrative for Speakers of Other Languages in the 21th Annual “Escribo en español” Contest sponsored by the Center for Spanish Studies, OSPI, University of Washington, and the Embassy of Spain. The theme of this year’s contest is: “Me hace sonreír, reír... me hace feliz”, (“It makes me smile, it makes me laugh, it makes me happy”).

There were 374 essays entered in this contest statewide and to get 1 student from our school to win is a big accomplishment.

In this writing competition, students followed simple guidelines i.e., ideas that are interesting and important, logical organization, creativity, voice, word choice, and sentence fluency.

If you know Juliana, please congratulate her accordingly.

Thanks,

Ivette Thompson
