OLYMPIA – Jillian Sistrunk, a student at Henry M. Jackson High School, served as a page last week in the Washington State House of Representatives. Sponsored by State Rep. Dan Bronoske, D-Lakewood, Jillian is the child of Emily Sistrunk and Jacob Sistrunk of Mill Creek. Pages assume a wide variety of responsibilities, from presenting the flags to distributing amendments on the House floor. Pages support the efficient operation of the Legislature while also receiving daily civics instruction, drafting their own bills, and participating in mock committee hearings.
