

MILL CREEK
ROTARY STUDENT
Overcoming Adversity

Arnav Sood

Arnav is the ASB President of Jackson High School and is trying to make this school year feel as normal as possible for his fellow peers. By overseeing virtual assemblies, spirit weeks, and competitions, he's trying to keep the student body together even during these difficult times of isolation. Arnav is a straight A student who's involved in leadership roles for his school's Speech and Debate team and Mock Trial club, as well as a member of his school's Technology Student Association, Link Crew, and National Honors Society. After graduation, he hopes to pursue a degree in Business to continue creating positive change in the world around him.

TSHIRING SHERPA

MILL CREEK ROTARY STUDENT COMMUNITY SERVICE

Tshiring is motivated to connect people and build community, in part because growing up she attended many different schools and needed to make new connections constantly. She currently is working as a student leader for Cascadia Community College, where she is a student working on earning an associates' s degree . Her job entails reaching out to students to provide them with information about what is happening on campus and giving them information about various opportunities that connect them to the larger college community. Another part of her job is to provide students at Cascadia a sense of belonging which she provides through discussions, games and other interactions with all the students. She also has participated in multiple clubs including Key Club, Mock Trial and the Health and Sciences Club at Cascadia. She manages to engage in all of these activities in addition to taking eight AP courses and working on her AA, all while maintaining a high GPA during her career at Jackson.
