

September 26, 2018

Jaden Perez, a JHS sophomore, used his Spanish language skills to volunteer in Guatemala this summer. Jaden supported Dr. Mike Mallahan and a group of eight University of Washington audiology students who went to rural Guatemala to perform hearing screenings, hearing aid fittings, and training for to local audio technicians. Nice work, Jaden!

