Visit the practice test site at <https://www.everettsd.org/Page/29993> and select your testing language to see sample tests to help you determine if you are ready to take the World Language proficiency exam.

Below is a practice writing prompt; if you can write a well detailed, two paragraph response in your requested language, then you should consider registering for this exam.

Practice Writing Prompt—you must write in complete sentences and at your highest possible level. Provide all detail requested in the question and enough detail to fully demonstrate your writing skills. Stay on-topic.

**You just received an email from your friend. He wrote about his weekend and the things that he and his friends did on Saturday. He concluded his email asking you about the typical things that you and your friends do on the weekend. Write back and describe two of your favorite activities that you do with your friends and family and why you enjoy them so much. Include as many details as you can and write in complete sentences.*
