

Summer Recommendations

Become familiar with the U. S. Constitution. What are the different parts? How are they different? What general categories do the amendments tend to fit into?

Get started on your choice for the required political participation project.

Become familiar with the required Supreme Court cases and foundational readings. Write notes and list questions you may have about them.

Watch the news. What are the issues? What are the different sides to the issues? How do different news organizations cover issues differently?
