

Time Practice

Complete each clock and write the matching time below. Remember . . . when you add the hour hand to each clock, it should be shorter than the minute hand! If you feel you have mastered o'clock and half-past, try stretching your thinking and applying what you know about time from our clock game to create and write different times.

