

Mr. Aitken - First Non-Indian Explorers

Lesson: Who were the first non-indian explorers of the Pacific Northwest, and where did they come from?

1. Who was Juan de Fuca? Which country did he represent? Where did he explore? When?

2. Who was Francis Drake? Which country did he represent? Where did he explore? When?

3. Who were Perez, Heceta, and Quadra? Which country did they represent? Where did they explore? When?

4. Who was James Cook? Which country did he represent? Where did he explore? When?

5. Who was Robert Gray? Which country did he represent? Where did he explore? When?

6. Who was George Vancouver? Which country did he represent? Where did he explore? When?

7. How many countries had claims to the Pacific Northwest? Who were they?

6. On the map above, use colored pencils to draw the routes of Cook, Vancouver, and Gray. Label with names and dates.

- James Cook
- George Vancouver
- Robert Gray

7. Label the following on the map:

- Puget Sound
- Strait of Juan de Fuca
- Vancouver Island
- Nootka Sound

___ Gray's Harbor

___ Columbia River