

Digraphs ee, ea, ie

beans	believe	eat
field	Jean	Lee
need	peas	see
seed	seeds	sweet

Contractions 'd, 'll, 've

We'll

High Frequency Words

different	friend	great
house	kind

Lee's Cake Seeds

Lee's dad spotted them.
 "What are you doing?"
 "I'm planting cake seeds," Lee responds.

"This kind of cake has seeds in it. I believe planting them will make us cakes," he tells his friend, Jean. "It will be great!"
 "We'll see," Jean responds.

Lee likes eating sweet seed cakes. He planted these seed cakes in this field beside his house.

2

"We can't plant seeds to make cakes," Dad tells Lee.
"We must bake cakes!"

7

"Peas and beans come from seeds. I believe seed cakes are not different. They will make sweet seed cakes."

"We'll see," Jean responds.

4

"If I provide these cake seeds with what they need, I believe they will get big," Lee tells Jean.
"We'll see," Jean responds.

5