

Henry M. Jackson High School Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 12, 2020

Mill Creek, Washington - Jackson High School is pleased to welcome Terry Ryan as the new Girls Soccer Head Coach. Ryan has a very extensive coaching career with over 20 years' of experience at several high schools including; Mercer Island, Glacier Peak and Archbishop Murphy.

Ryan turned around a Mercer Island High School team from 3 wins before he arrived into 25 wins over 2 seasons and was named KingCo Coach of the year in 2013.

Ryan has taken USSF National "B", "C" and "D" Coaching License courses and has coached several teams to win City Championships, League and District Titles and placed three teams in the State Championships. Ryan also coached for 5 years at Crossfire Premier Soccer Club, where his teams excelled each season.

Ryan excels at developing players, devising and communicating his vision for the talent pool he has, then motivates every player to achieve their potential as individuals and as a team. Ryan and his family live in Mill Creek.

Ryan states "I am very excited about leading the Jackson High School Girls' Soccer program this year. I can't wait to get started!"

Blythe Young, Athletic Director at Jackson High School, was thrilled to have Ryan accept the position to become be part of the Wolf Pack stating "After a thorough search, Coach Terry Ryan rose to the top with his well-defined set of values that we know he will instill in our athletes to build the right culture for the program".

