- Alright Bruins! Are you a Senior who is freaking out about college applications, or a freshmen worried about grades? Well, next week is going to be Stress Relief Week to give all of you out there that are feeling stressed, a little bit of self-care. We have things planned such as Yoga, Painting, Meditation and many more. Be sure to take it easy next week as we encourage you all to relax.
- Hey Students and Teachers, the winter season is getting closer, and to celebrate, the sophomore class is selling wreaths, poinsettias, and much more to decorate your homes this Thanksgiving and Christmas. If you are interested in purchasing, make your way to room 610 or find a sophomore officer in the morning or after school for further information.
- Inhale your future, exhale your past. Tuesday, there will be Yoga led by Mr. Hurtig during PAWS. There will also be guided Meditation Thursday in the cafeteria during PAWS. If you would like to participate sign-up outside of the Activities Center today!
