- At the regularly scheduled times for the PSAT test and academic support.
 - 3 ½ hours later than the regularly scheduled time for late arrival students.
- Bell Schedule: PSAT School Day Bell Schedule
- Materials: Students should bring to the test #2 pencils, a calculator, water & snacks.
- Scores: Score Reports will be delivered to classrooms in January 2020. Scores will also be visible in Home Access Center (HAC).
- Test Prep: 10th grade English teachers will distribute PSAT practice materials to their students. In addition, the Khan Academy has worked with the College Board to provide free preparation for the PSAT at <https://www.khanacademy.org/sat>
- PSAT info: Visit College Board's website at <https://www.collegeboard.org/>

General PSAT Information

While the PSAT is a great primer for the SAT, it is also the qualifying test for the National Merit Scholarship when taken as an 11th grade student.
